

JACKALOPE

A PRIVACY FOCUSED
SEARCH ENGINE

RESPONSES TO STUDENT FEEDBACK

Difference between Jackalope and DuckDuckGo

Why you need 2 machines

Not a web browser nor a website

SURVEY QUESTIONS

Number of Respondents:

- There were 71 respondents

4 Questions:

- Age Range
- Ethnic Background
- Technology Literacy
- Feelings about Privacy

WHAT IS YOUR AGE RANGE?

WHAT IS YOUR ETHNIC BACKGROUND?

HOW LITERATE ARE YOU WITH TECHNOLOGY?

HOW DO YOU FEEL ABOUT PRIVACY ON THE WEB?

PURPOSE

“Some websites allow hundreds of different data collection companies to watch you, build a profile of you, and serve you ads as you browse the web.” – Apple

INTRODUCTION: DEFINITIONS

JSE

- Jackalope Search Engine

JGUI

- Jackalope Graphic User Interface

JCP

- Jackalope Client Program

JSP

- Jackalope Server Program

SCOPE

Products to be created:

- Jackalope Search Engine – Client Program
- Jackalope Search Engine – Server Program

What our project will not do:

- Serve as a web browser
- Sweep the entire internet

OVERVIEW

Private host on user's server

Prevent stored search history

Produce relevant URL links

PRODUCT PERSPECTIVE

System Interface

Wikipedia API

User Interface

Search input box
List of titles and hyperlinks

Software Interface

- WebCrawler – to pull textual information from webpages
- Natural Language Processing – conversion of user input into searchable items
- Client-Server architecture – sending queries to and from client/server

PRODUCT FUNCTIONS

USER REQUIREMENTS

Educational Level: College

Experience: Firm understanding of client/server relations

Technical Expertise: Familiar with installations of Operating Systems

CONSTRAINTS

Scholastic search tool

Discard user search history

Refined information

ASSUMPTIONS & DEPENDENCIES

We are assuming:

- Wikipedia is trustworthy
- Our users have a spare decent, mid-grade computer

We are depending on:

- Python
- C++

DELAYED ITEMS

QUESTIONS/IMPORTANT LINKS

- Apple's Privacy Page
- Survey Results